

Medway SEPAC

Tuesday, October 18th

7:00PM

Ann Larsen
Landmark School

Medway SEPAC is pleased to invite Ann Larsen, consultant from the Landmark School. She will present strategies for helping your child at home.

- Executive Function
- Strategies for Parents at Home

This workshop is designed to provide parents with a better understanding of the child who exhibits weaknesses with executive function. Topics of discussion will include an overview of executive function, how it impacts the daily life of the child who struggles with executive function weaknesses, and several effective strategies for helping students at home

Medway SEPAC meets on the 2nd Tuesday of the month in the library at Medway High School , 88 Summer St.

All are welcome. Membership in SEPAC is open to the parents/guardians of any child in the Medway Public Schools receiving Special Education Service (IEP, 504, outside placement, etc.)
